

Guildhall Access

From the Cathedral turn left into Deansway at first set of traffic lights turn right, past the fire station, the entrance to the guildhall is on the left

From the river Follow the signpost for the M5, when you come into Deansway the college is on your right with a spire next to it at the traffic lights turn Left, past the fire station, the entrance to the guildhall is on the left

There is access is through an automatic door at the far end of the back of the Guildhall. There is not room for people to park this is a dropping of point only. There is cheap all day parking at St. Martins Gate car park and Severn Bridge car park these are about 10 mins walk away at most